

Standards Element Linkage 2018-2019

1. Demonstration of Mastery of Pedagogical Expertise in the Content
a. Teachers provide instruction that is aligned with Colorado Academic Standards, their District's organized plan of instruction, and the individual needs of the students.
TEACHER: Aligns planning intentionally with Colorado Visual Arts Academic Standards appropriate to student population: Comprehend, Reflect, Create, Transfer. Sequences practices specific to diverse student interest, needs, and learning. Plans intentionally age appropriate level of rigor. Plans intentionally for student choice and experimentation with concepts, materials, processes, technology.	STUDENT: Develops ideas and plans, as well as creating and responding to art work in multiple ways: Comprehend, Reflect, Create, Transfer. Explores ideas and art making that is personal and communicates the ideas/concepts of the student artist. Asks questions and experiments with ideas. Works collaboratively when needed. Chooses materials and art forms independently to communicate individual ideas.
b. Teachers develop and implement lessons that connect to a variety of content areas/disciplines and emphasize literacy and mathematical practices.
TEACHER: Provides meaningful connections to contemporary artists/practices and integrates ideas from outside the art world into the art curriculum. Facilitates systems to critique, respond, and form an opinion, and interpret meaning in art making. Models mathematical thinking, problem solving, and logic through spatial explorations, sequencing, and relationships to aspects of visual arts, and provide context for students to do the same.	STUDENT: Explores and integrates ideas from outside the art world in the art making process. Uses systems to critique, respond, and form an opinion, and interpret meaning in art making. Demonstrates understanding of systems to intentionally revise their work. Uses mathematical thinking, problem solving, and logic through spatial explorations, sequencing, and relationships to plan and create art.

c. Teacher's demonstrate knowledge of content, central concepts, disciplinary inquiry, appropriate evidence-based instructional practices and specialized characteristics of the disciplines being taught.
TEACHER: Delivers developmentally appropriate instruction and models visual arts skills, application, idea generation, critical thinking, and analytical skills. Encourages student ownership of ideas in art making and reflective practices. Plans intentionally to encourage risk taking and failure.	STUDENT: Explores ideas and art making in a variety of approaches that is personal and communicates the ideas/concepts of the student artist. Communicates and defends ideas in art making and reflective practices. Works to see their ideas through to completion; embracing failure to improve.
2. Safe, Inclusive and Respectful Learning Environment
a. Teachers foster a predictable learning environment characterized by acceptable student behavior and efficient use of time in which each student has a positive, nurturing relationship with caring adults and peers.
TEACHER: Handles routines daily; greeting class at door, framing expectations, debriefing, learning targets, daily objectives, learning objectives. Facilitates care for safety, materials, and tools in the studio classroom. Effective class management and procedures, lesson plans, transitions, reteaching after practice, feedback, posting objectives, learning targets, success criteria, exit slips, differentiation, scaffolding, etc.	STUDENT: Demonstrates responsibility for their learning: develops craft, art history and culture, engage and persist, envision, express, observe, reflect, stretch and explore. Demonstrates care for safety, materials and tools in the studio classroom. Effective use of research, planning, and studio time.
b. Teachers demonstrate an awareness of, a commitment to, and a respect for multiple aspects of diversity, while working toward common goals as a community of learners.
TEACHER: Responds to needs of students as they arise. Explains the ideas behind artists' artwork and the work of others, appropriately communicating meaning and context.	STUDENT: Selects and discusses visual art examples drawing from contemporary art, various cultures, races and backgrounds, and games/themes from different countries.

c. Teachers engage students as individuals, including those with diverse needs and interests, across a range of ability levels by adapting their teaching for the benefit of all students.
TEACHER: Engages students as individuals with unique interests and strengths. Uses questions to individualize technical, expressive, and conceptual investigation in the studio classroom. Plans intentionally to encourage choice, risk taking, and failure by scaffolding, challenging, modeling, and progressing through problem solving. Uses instructional resources for research, planning, and creating art in the room with intention (walls, files, books, technology).	STUDENT: Develop artwork based on previous art making experiences and personal ideas and context. Chooses materials and art forms independently to communicate individual ideas. Finds and pursues avenues for art inquiry to generate ideas in planning and creating artwork. Demonstrates their own choice and experimentation with concepts, materials, processes, and technology.
d. Teachers work with families and/or significant adults in the lives of their students.
TEACHER: Examples include email/phone logs, report card comments, conferences, rubric for performance based assessments, immediate/timely feedback (for example; reading, reflection, websites, formal or in formal critique). Documents and provides opportunities for students to document and share the art making process.	STUDENT: Documents and shares the art making process with others. Discusses artists and art making processes relating to their artwork and/or working process when appropriate to their idea/concept.
3. Plan and Deliver Effective Instruction
a. Teachers demonstrate knowledge about the ways in which learning takes place, including the levels of intellectual, physical, social and emotional development of students.
TEACHERS: Implements appropriate learning strategies, for example: pair/share-group practices, coping strategies, peer/self-assessments, demonstration, collaborative art making. Scaffolds the generation of ideas; inquiry and construction of new knowledge with conceptual/physical materials and resources. Implements continuous assessment during art making experiences for students to reflect on the art making process and participate in their own growth as makers and thinkers.	STUDENT: Demonstrates their own choice and experimentation with concepts, materials, processes, and technology. Documents and cultivates challenging visual possibilities through collective thinking. Scaffolds and builds on concepts; develops artwork based on previous art making experiences and ideas. Solves problems posed by materials and applies art techniques with age appropriate level of fluency.

b. Teachers use formal and informal methods to assess student learning, provide feedback, and use results to inform planning and instruction.
TEACHER: Intentionally plan age appropriate level of rigor. Facilitates systems to critique, respond, and form opinions, and interpret meaning in art making. Encourages student ownership of ideas in art making practices. Formative assessment practice. Performance based assessment. Appropriately measures growth in skills.	STUDENT: Demonstrates understanding of systems to intentionally revise artwork. Explains the ideas behind their artwork and the work of others. Demonstrates understanding of systems to intentionally revise their work. Solves problems posed by materials and apply art techniques with age appropriate level of fluency. Discusses artists and art making processes relating to their artwork and/or working process when appropriate to their idea/concept.
c. Teachers integrate and utilize appropriate available technology to engage students in authentic learning experience.
TEACHER: Cultivates challenging visual possibilities through reflective thinking. iPads, iPods, videos, projectors, flipcharts, visual aids, YouTube/Safeshare, cell phones, digital documentation.	STUDENT: Documents and cultivates challenging visual possibilities through reflective thinking and technology (visual journal, sketchbook, blog).
d. Teachers establish and communicate high expectations and use processes to support the development of critical thinking and problem-solving skills.
TEACHER: Uses rubrics; models success criteria. Teaches students to set individual goals.	STUDENT: Finds and pursues avenues for art inquiry to generate ideas in planning, creating, and reflecting on artwork. Explains the ideas behind their artwork and the work of others.
e. Teachers provide students with opportunities to work in teams and develop leadership.
TEACHER: Provides opportunities for collaboration, small groups, teams, student leaders, and connecting art making to contemporary practice. Provides opportunities for students to reflect on their artwork and the artwork of others.	STUDENT: Utilizes collaboration, small groups, teams, student leaders, connecting art making to contemporary practice. Discusses artists and art making processes relating to their artwork and/or working process when appropriate to their idea/concept.
f. Teachers model and promote effective communication.
TEACHER: Posts learning objectives, word walls, modeling standard visual arts vocabulary, and frames expectations/ studio habits.	STUDENT: Demonstrates responsible choice and experimentation with concepts, materials, processes, and technology.

4. Demonstrate Professionalism

a. Teachers demonstrate high standards for professional practice.

TEACHER: Models professionalism.

Participates in district and state art organizations.

Provides exhibition opportunities for students.

Documents student exhibitions for community.

Attends gallery/museum exhibitions.

Stays current in arts bringing and/or providing rich cultural experiences for students.

Participates in parent-teacher conferences, PTO, etc.

b. Teachers link professional growth to their professional goals.

TEACHER: Participates in professional development, attends professional conferences (if appropriate), and applies learning in daily teaching.

c. Teachers respond to a complex, dynamic environment.

TEACHER: Establishes overall classroom management / Monitors studio classroom.

Demonstrates knowledge of and uses IEP's, behavior plans, 504 plans.

Provide opportunities to challenge AGATE and high achieving students, ELL strategies (sentence stems, visual aides, etc.).

d. Teachers demonstrate leadership in the school, the community, and the teaching profession.

TEACHER: Uses instructional resources in the room with intention (walls, files, books, technology).

Continues personal studio practice.

Participates in professional learning community and/or professional development (conferences) for art educators (if available and when appropriate).

Assists with grants, community events, enrichment/clubs.
